ALL MEN (AND WOMEN) FREE AND EQUAL

THE emancipation of the slaves in 1861 was not left to a vote of the several states. It was done with a single drop of ink in the pen of the president of the United States. Following this was a constitutional amendment, not adopted by the several states but by the nation as a whole.

If women, who in a majority of the states "enjoy" the same constitutional rights as did the negro prior to the emancipation proclamation, were to wait for the several commonwealths to emancipate them, it would be many years and perhaps never. Note what a bitter, long drawn battle was fought in Nevada, which remained the "black" state on the suffrage map long after all others west of the Rockies had freed the women and given them actual citizenship.

Mr. Wilson may have voted for suffrage in Mosquitoville, New Jersey, but he bitterly opposed the adoption of the Susan B. Anthony amendment. Little wonder that the 4,000,000 women voters in the United States are a unit for Mr. Hughes, a man who has publicly announced and reiterated his stand in favor of universal suffrage by amendment of the Constitution of the United States. The women will stand by his candidacy and they will elect him.

MEN AND WOMEN WHO MERIT SUPPORT

IN nearly every instance the candidates selected by the Republican party of Nye for legislative and executive offices are ideal. This rarely occurs and was particularly difficult in a campaign where a cumbersome, unimpartial and abortive indirect primary plan was tried for the first—and the Bonanza confidently expects—the last time.

Altogether the will of the people has been fairly well represented in the candidates chosen. They are men of high motives and capability, loyal to their party and ambitious to render the best service in their power.

As to the state and national ticket, the presidential electors, senator, congressman, justice and clerk of the supreme court and university regents, they are all men and women of most excellent qualifications and a cross should be stamped after the name of each. Nevada has long been a Democratic state, but the tide of battle has turned, the trenches of the enemy have been invaded and it will be placed, without doubt, in the Republican columns on the seventh of November.

HON. T. F. (BARNEY) MORAN

A VISITOR from Reno informs the Bonanza that Washoe county will go ten to one for T. F. (Barney) Moran for justice of the supreme court. That is because he is known, loved and respected there. His development from a railway employe to his present position, a re-elected judge of the district bench, has been watched by all people in Washoe and they have not found him to falter or err, but to have in his quiet, unostentatious manner, forged ahead and discharged his duties brilliantly and with justice to all. His personal history is without a blemish page. Judge Moran is not a shiny hypocphant. He has quiet reserve without turkey gobble dignity. When he shakes hands he does so in manly fashion, but does not slap you on the back and smirk and drivell. He resorts to no cheap vote soliciting methods. He stands on his record and his capability and they will sweep him into office as they have done on former occasions.

SAM PLATT A NEVADA BOY

THERE is a tie that binds one to the place of his birth, where his early associations beckon, where he pays devotions to his alma mater. A transplanted citizen may be upright and loyal, but he cannot have the love and devotion for his new home that is felt by one who was "to the manor born." Sam Platt is a Nevada boy. He loves this state. He is devoted to its institutions and to its people. He is not only a gifted, but an honorable man. He would sacrifice personal ambitions to be of benefit to the state. That is why he was chosen with such a huge majority by his party, against two rivals who are themselves men of excellent qualifications and wide popularity. Sam Platt, the Nevada boy, is the next junior senator from this state.

A REAL SERVANT OF THE PEOPLE

ROLLCALL in the House of Representatives, as any one may determine by scanning the Congressional Record, evidences that there is great difficulty at times to secure a quorum when a vote is to be taken. There are professional absentees, it would seem, one of Nevada's representatives a few years ago having established the record of appearing in the House only once in each session, and then simply to qualify for drawing his pay. But Ed Roberts is on the job at all times. He rarely even visits Nevada whether congress is in session or not, but can be found at his desk in the House or in his office, devoting himself constantly to the needs of his constituents. E. E. Roberts will be returned by the largest majority he has ever been given.

Pittman's paper in Tonopah grows indignant over the statement that the Tonopah tax rate of $4.01 is the highest in the state. There is one other. Goldfield has a tax rate of $4.89. This augurs well for swinging both Nye and Esmeralda counties back into the Republican fold as a protest against Democratic extravagance.—Reno Gazette.

THE STROLLER

BY L. B. (LETSON BALLIET)

For some years I have occasionally written short articles for publication in various papers under this head. Some have been intended to amuse, and some to make the readers think. Never are they intended to offend. Friendship comes from kindness, and I think I have many friends among the readers of this paper, and I hope to make more. If my views differ from yours, I grant you the right to your views just as freely as I claim the right to my own. If your politics differ from mine, you have every right to your own convictions, the same as I have to mine, and I will still be your friend, without regard to politics, religion, race, color, nationality or occupation. I shall pay for this space at advertising rates and thus be sure it will not be crowded out by more important matter.

QUALIFICATIONS

In my criticism of men, and their business acts and methods, I am careful never to say one word that will injure the man after election is over, nor to lower him in the esteem of his fellow men, or make any unpleasantness fall upon him or his family.

Mr. Slavin is beaten—though he will be second in the race. Mr. Thomas, the Socialist, will carry only one precinct in the county.

There is a danger that Mr. Thomas might pull enough votes from me to elect Mr. Slavin, though there is no chance of Mr. Thomas getting above third place in the race. The taxpayers, ranchers, business men, like Mr. Slavin personally, but they will not stand for Socialists or I. W. W. control of the office. They don't want Socialists nor I. W. W. deputy assessors because they are selected by the SOCIALIST EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE for their loyalty to radical Socialism, and not upon qualifications. Mr. Thomas could not select his own deputies if he wanted to.

Mr. Thomas has a smile that people like. In fact, he can give a customer twenty cents' worth of meat for fifty cents, and when you go back to kick, he can smile and talk to you in such a way that it makes YOU LIKE WHAT YOU GOT, and go back for more. That's a fine asset in the butcher business—but I could never get by with it because I'm not diplomatic nor polite enough to make anyone like it.

I am a plain, outspoken citizen—if I say things it's because I think they are right, and I have courage enough to come out in the open and say it, and do say it, unless it is something that is better unsaid, and then I don't even repeat it to myself.

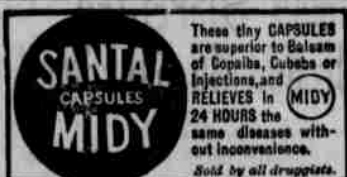

I do not want to "pull down" or "knock" a fellow man. If it is necessary for me to "scandalize," "vilify," or injure a man in order for me to be advanced, I will never be advanced.

I don't want to say anything that I'll have to take back after election, or that will reflect upon my open character either before or after election, because

"There is so much of good in the worst of us
 And so much of bad in the best of us
 That it little behooves any of us
 To speak ill of the rest of us."

Criticism of public acts, kindly made, are a kindness and a necessity in order that corrections may be made. Comparison of business qualifications are proper and necessary in order that the voters may have a knowledge of which is the best qualified man for office.

A number of citizens have come to me with stories of the meat difficulties, and troubles with the butcher shop. All of this kind of information I am obliged to leave out of print because it has no bearing on qualifications of a candidate for office. The only thing that interests me is that many Socialists say "Thomas ain't no Socialist at heart," and in fact I don't see how he can be. He is manager for and interested in a meat company, co-operating with the BIGGEST TRUST IN THE U. S. All of his hams, bacon, lard, dried beef, spare ribs, pork tenderloin, and some of his other meat comes from the MEAT TRUST. He is represent-

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS

MRS. HUGH H. BROWN WILL DELIVER AN ADDRESS
AT GOLDFIELD

Mrs. Hugh H. Brown left this morning for Goldfield to attend the annual convention of the Federated Women's clubs of Nevada. The convention will be in session three days. Mrs. Brown will deliver an address at the Friday afternoon session on "Home Making as a Fine Art." The sessions promise to be largely attended. Two special Pullmans from the north, containing delegates, were attached to train 24. Mrs. Jean Cowles of Los Angeles, president of the national organization, together with other distinguished visitors from the coast, will be guests of honor. Governor and Mrs. Boyle stopped in Tonopah this morning for several hours en route to the convention, where the governor is scheduled to deliver an address. A number of Tonopah ladies will be in attendance. Mrs. Sollender-Hanby and Mrs. Neth are on the program for vocal numbers. Mrs. North and Mrs. Wicks of Manhattan are delegates to the convention, arriving by private auto last evening and continuing on to Goldfield this morning.

M. ALEXANDER BROWN, M. D. of Reno. Practice limited to EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT, will be at the MIZPAH HOTEL on FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27TH. Adv. O231f

Let a working man stand in the meat market, in his overalls, and try to get waited on. If the telephone bell rings and an order for a few French chops comes in from some of the 400 society, a rush order is made—immediate delivery given—while the laborer waits.

Let a laboring man leave an order in the shop as he goes to work in the morning, and the chances are it will not be delivered when he gets home at night. Why? Because Mr. Thomas is catering to better trade, and has rushed the sandwich meats for the afternoon teas, and the meats for early dinners—while the common people wait for the others are served. If you call that genuine Socialism, I don't. I've been a working man all my life, and worked with my men in all kinds of places. I never ask a man to do anything that I am not willing to help him do, and I'm paying my men ALL THEY PRODUCE and more. And I give all my time and study to HELP MY WORKERS and make conditions better for them. I'm not working for any TRUST, either. If anyone is entitled to the working man's vote I think I am.

Again, that market is an object lesson in inefficiencies of business management: Sausage makers, chicken pluckers, delivery men, vegetable men, and meat cutters, are trampling on each other's toes, while the patrons wait for attention. Mr. Thomas has to hire a bookkeeper, to keep his books WHILE HE CUTS MEAT AT THE BLOCK. Now what in the world will he do with the Assessor's office, which in all figures, accounts, appraisements and valuations, with a tax rate carried out into decimals? Do you think he is qualified for that office?
